

Q54

THE BULLDOG

There were times we thought we wouldn't
But we finally got it done,
It took a lot of effort,
But we had a lot of fun.

HERE IT IS . . . WE HOPE YOU
LIKE IT !!!

THE STAFF

To the Students, Staff and Faculty:

Genius is only the power of making continuous efforts. The line between failure and success is so fine that we scarcely know when we pass it; so fine that we are often on the line and do not know it. A little more persistence, a little more effort, and what seemed to be a hopeless failure may turn into very glorious success.

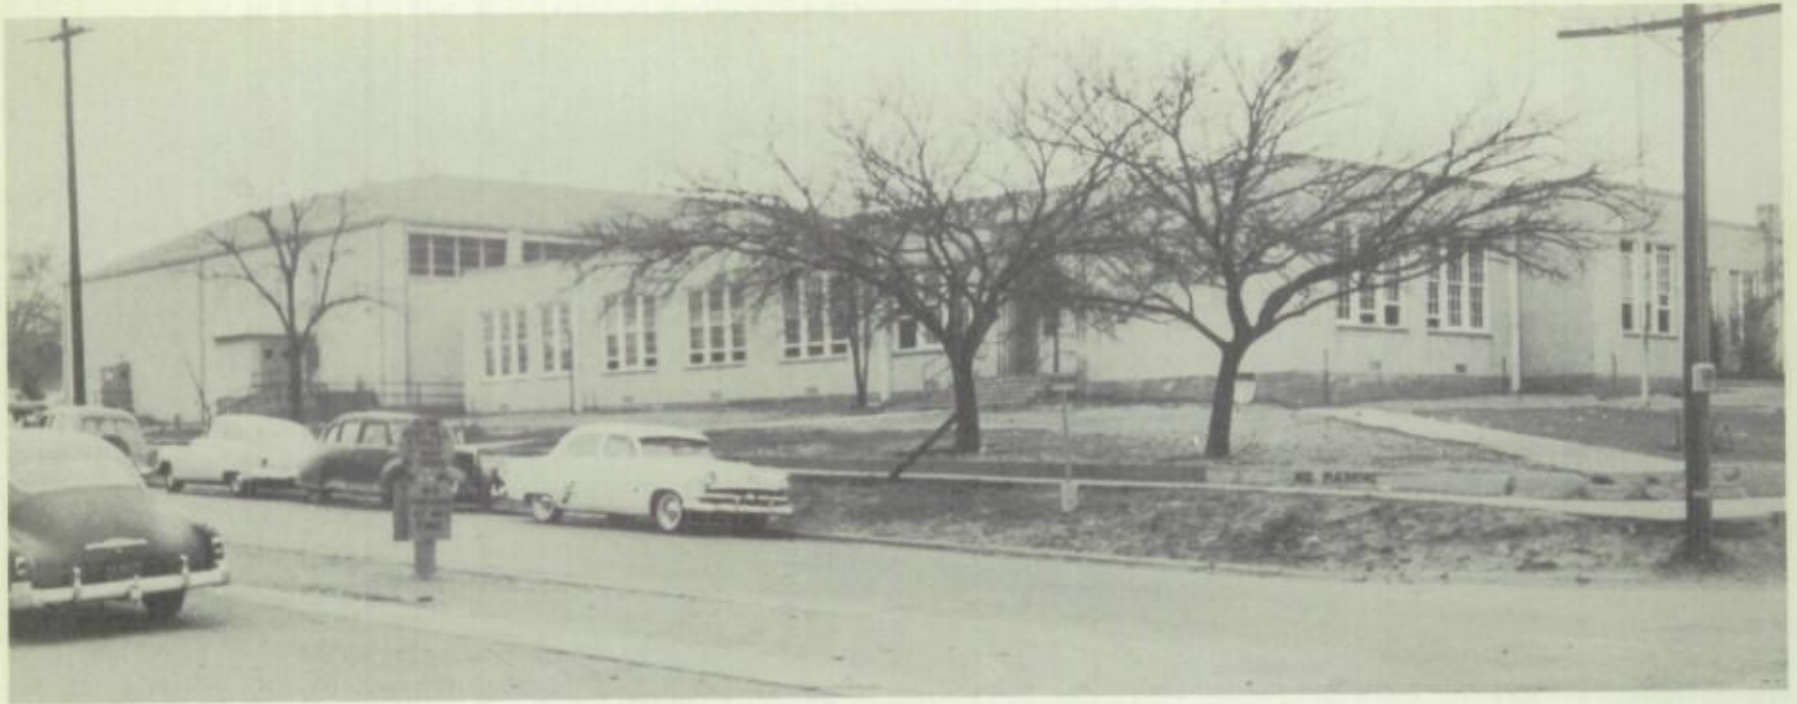

There is no failure except in no longer trying. There is no defeat except from within, no really impossible barrier except our own weakness of purpose.

Sincerely,

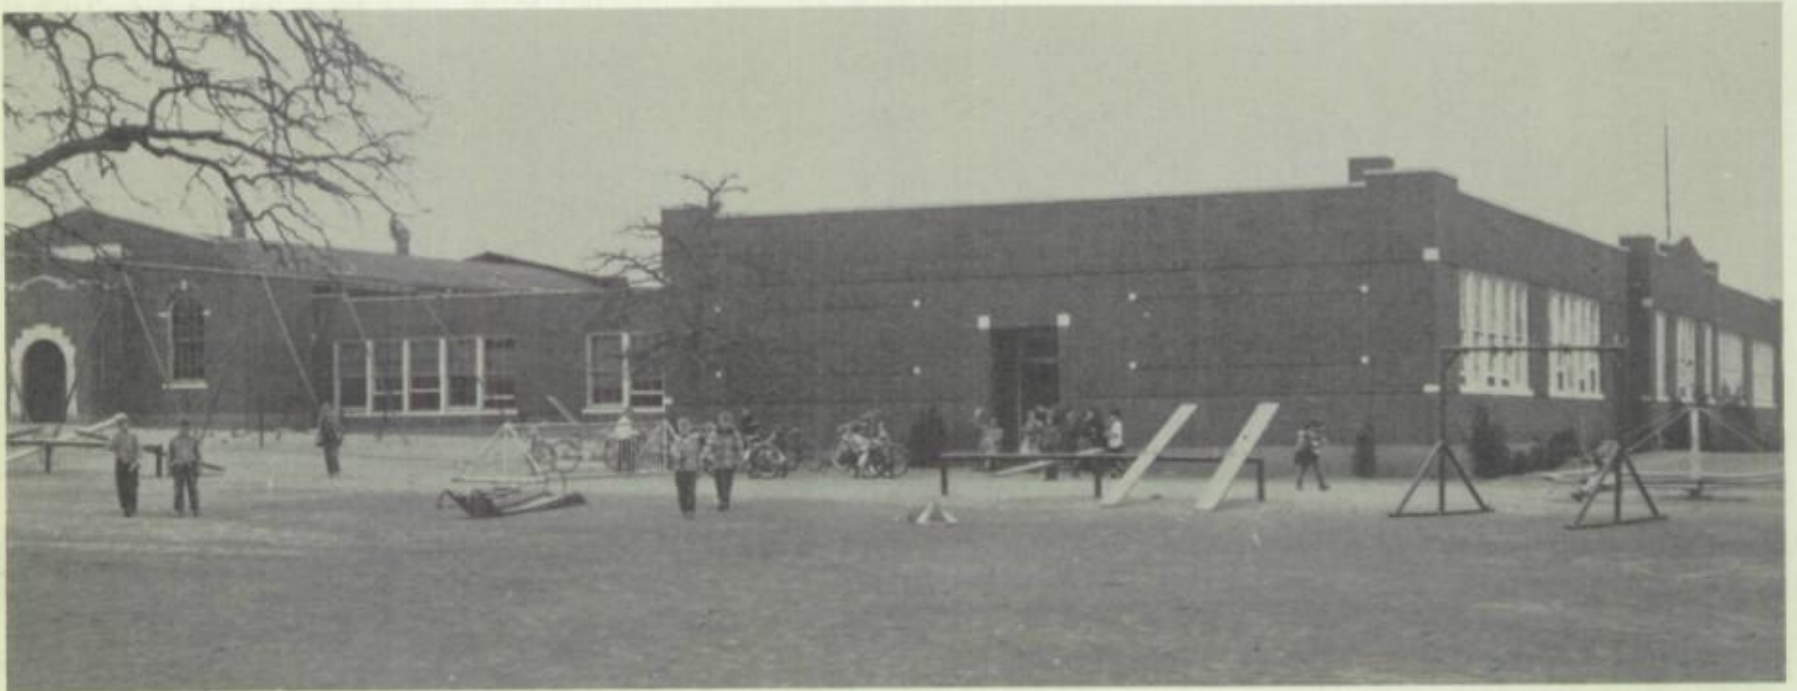

Noel E. Vaughn

The image displays a page from an old manuscript, featuring a grid of handwritten characters. The characters are arranged in approximately 10 rows and 15 columns. The handwriting is in a historical script, possibly a form of shorthand or a specific dialect. The characters are mostly 'E' and 'L' shapes, suggesting a binary or simple alphabet. The page is aged and slightly tilted.
